Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures in EAEU

Agreed policy in the sphere of application of sanitary, veterinary-sanitary and phytosanitary quarantine (hereinafter – SPS) measures is conducted in the EAEU in order to ensure the sanitary and epidemiological well-being of the population, as well as veterinary-sanitary and phytosanitary quarantine safety.

Agreed policy is carried out through development, adoption and implementation by the Member States of international treaties and acts of the Eurasian Economic Commission in the sphere of SPS control.

The legitimate framework for the development, enforcement and implementation of SPS measures in EAEU is covered by the Treaty on the EAEU\(^1\): Articles 56-59, Chapter XI and Protocol on the sanitary, veterinary-sanitary and phytosanitary quarantine measures application (Annex 12 to the Treaty on the Eurasian Economic Union).

Mandatory SPS requirements in EAEU are implemented to the goods (products, objects and persons) covered by the relevant single lists subject to:
- Sanitary-epidemiological and hygienic supervision (control)\(^2\),
- Veterinary-sanitary supervision (control)\(^3\) and
- Quarantine phytosanitary supervision (control)\(^4\).

For the abovementioned products and relevant procedures EAEU implements single requirements, covered by the following documents:

- For the goods subject to sanitary control:
  - Decision of the Commission of the Customs Union № 299, May 28, 2010 which established Common sanitary, epidemiological and hygienic requirements, Unified form of a document confirming safety of products, Regulation on the implementation of state sanitary and epidemiological control for persons and vehicles crossing the customs border of the Eurasian Economic Union;
  - Decision of the Council of the Eurasian Economic Commission № 5, February 16, 2008\(^5\) which established provisions regarding the Single Register of State Registration Certificates for Products\(^6\);

Requirements for the Goods and Objects Subject to Phytosanitary Control at the Customs Union Border and Territory;15

At the same time in EAEU technical regulations for the Single List of Goods Subject to Mandatory Requirements are implemented at the supranational level. In accordance with Article 53 of the Treaty on the EAEU, where a technical regulation for certain type of goods is enforced only those mandatory requirements – both SPS and technical ones – are applied to this type of goods.

The Single List of Goods Subject to Mandatory Requirements in EAEU is established by the Decision of the Commission of the Customs Union № 526, January 28, 201117.

Texts of the EAEU technical regulations in force are published at the official website of the Eurasian Economic Commission18.

Mandatory Technical Requirements in EAEU

The system of technical regulation of the EAEU aims to carry out coordinated policy in the field of technical regulation and establish common mandatory requirements for products at the EAEU territory.

In accordance with the Article 52 of the Treaty on the EAEU19 mandatory requirements in EAEU are applied only to the goods covered by the Single List of Goods Subject to Mandatory Requirements20.

In order to ensure the safety of human life and health, property, environment, animal and plant life and health, prevent actions misleading consumers, ensure energy efficiency and resource saving for the abovementioned Single List of Goods in EAEU are established technical regulations.
